

Appling HealthCare System’s long-term care facility, “The Pavilion”, recently went through an intensive 4 day annual state survey. We would like to congratulate Melba Webb, Administrator and Kim Jowers, Director of Nursing as well as the staff of “The Pavilion” on an successful survey! This success exemplifies the commitment of the staff at the Pavilion to provide exceptional nursing care and the best quality of life for each resident.